Planning session for Alternative School held at Central Office

BUTLER — Administrators in the Choctaw Co. Public School System met on Jan. 18th with Supt. of Education Sue Moore and Central Office staff to develop a collaborative plan of procedures for admitting students to the Alternative School which is slated to open in February. This plan will be recommended to the Board of Education at its Feb. 13th meeting which will be held at Choctaw Co. Elementary School. Other issues that were discussed included a uniform discipline referral form, the cost of upgrading Dell 240's, the system's current At Risk Plan, and an organized way to handle technology needs and man-hours.

Gift bags for nursing home residents

GILBERTOWN — This year the ASCC Library in Gilbertown has made a resolution to better serve the community... in addition to the 50 Hospice Patients they already serve, the staff and students decided to add some cheer to the residents at Willow Trace Nursing Home in Butler by preparing more than 100 bags, cards and tokens of well-wishes, and plan to continue this throughout the year. "Because God has blessed us, we are able to help others," they said. Pictured are Connie James, Shelia McGrew, Debbie Jimerson, Miranda Boothe, LuAnn Williams, and Stephanie Adams.
