

Board members honored

Choctaw Sun photos by Dee Ann Campbell BUTLER -- In recognition of January as School Board Appreciation Month, members of the Choctaw County BOE were honored by local schools and by Superintendent Sue Moore during the board meeting last Thursday. Pictured in Moore presenting a certificate of appreciation to Board Chairman Isaac Johnson.

Southern Choctaw Elementary student Imani Powe, who is a member of the school's SGA, presented the board members with gifts from the school.

Choctaw County Elementary principal Wayne Longmire presents a token of appreciation to Ronald Hampton, as Wayne Taylor checks on what is in his gift bag.

Thank you, members of the Choc. Co. BOE, for all that you do for our children.

CCES principal Wayne Longmire speaks to the Board, expressing his appreciation on behalf of his school. In the background as Isaac Johnson and Superintendent Moore.

Southern Choctaw High School student Amber Rankins presents a gift of appreciation from the school to Wayne Taylor.

Moore awards Turk Philllips with a certificate of appreciation.

Choctaw Co. High School teacher Beth Gore reads a proclamation in appreciation of the BOE.

Arielle Miller of SCHS expresses her appreciation to Ronald Hampton.

AT LEFT: CCHS student Jalessa McNeely gifts a certificate to Wayne Taylor.

AT RIGHT: Board member Sharon Shepherd poses with GP Barefield and Imani Powe, with Isaac Johnson in the foreground.

