

Celebrating Career Tech Week at CCHS

AT LEFT: Guest Speaker for the assembly was Uniontown mayor Philip White who talked to the students about tips to being successful in school and in their careers.

AT RIGHT: Shantescia Ezell sang the National Anthem to open the program.

Choctaw Sun photos by Dee Ann Campbell

Career Tech Week was celebrated with activities in local schools this week, including an assembly at Choctaw County High School. Career Tech Director B.K. Smith spoke to the students about the importance of career technical programs and the current fight to keep them funded.

Members of the Futher Business Leaders of America at CCHS are: (Front left to right) Officers -- President Jahmad Harrison, Vice-president Brandon Bryant, Secretary Oneka Mosley; Khalia Johnson, Calandria Johnson; (back) Joshua Adams, Treasurer Denellia Rodgers; Reporter Amanda Coleman, Parliamentarian Daniel Dykes, and Joe Deloach

Family and Consumer Science Leaders of America members are: Regina Crosby, Nakarra, Young, Nashonda Thomas, and Kizswana Ruffin. Also pictured is sponsor Lela Willis.

Future Farmers of America members at CCHS are: Joshua Kennedy, Slmone Ridgeway, Marquandra Wallace, Ashley Crosby, Breanna Smith, and Dakota Lindsey. Sponsor is Phillip Lyles.

Auto Tech students include: (in no particular order) Charles Conner, Amos Ezell, Edward DuBose, and Tracey Jones. Not pictured is instructor Neil McIlwain.

Skills USA members are: (in no particular order) Lee Nickelson, Jermaine Bush, Kendraius Brown, Ricky Bush, and Ravis Ruffin.

Career Tech instructors at CCHS are: Phillip Lyles, B.K. Smith (director), Joy Seybold, Lela Willis, Kim Mosley, Elaine Chapman, Charles Casey, and Neil McIlwain.

Coming on Tuesday ... SCHS Career Tech clubs