Square Dancin'

at Willow Trace

Choctaw Sun photos by Dee Ann Campbell

BUTLER -- Students from Choctaw County Elementary showed off the square dancing talents they've been learning in Physical Education class, wowing the residents at Willow Trace last week. Selected students in grades 4-6 travel to the nursing center to do a little do-si-do, under the direction of Coach Harding. Harding told the residents and staff that square dancing helps the students develop listening skills and learn to better follow directions, as well as giving them the chance for a little fun and physical activity.
