GILBERTOWN – The Gilbertown Woman's Club held its first meeting of the new year on January 11th.

Hosted by club secretary Selena Adams, the meeting was held at Gilbertown Baptist Church and included a review of old business and a look ahead at ideas for new projects for the year.

Irene McInnis provided the devotion for the meeting, challenging club members to make a difference in the new year ahead. Following her devotion, Mrs. Adams read the minutes of the previous meeting and shared pictures of the club's Christmas party.

After the financial statement was reviewed by treasurer Elizabeth Mosley, the club discussed the need for fund-raising projects for the upcoming year. Club members also discussed new memberships for the club, with several letters of invitation for membership currently awaiting responses from potential members.

Club members enjoyed a homemade dessert provided by the hostess, and the meeting was adjourned until February 8th.
