

Strickland, Forsythe hold December wedding

Jonathan Andrew Strickland and Candace LaJean Forsythe were married on Dec. 26, 2006 at Stewart's Chapel Baptist Church in Flintville, TN with Dr. Kenneth Wayne Fields officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Forsythe of New Market. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Weir of Flintville, TN.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Strickland of Shiloh. He is the grandson of the late Mrs. S.L. Fleming of Gilbertown, and the late Mr. Charley Fleming of Prattville and the late Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Strickland of Butler.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight off-the-shoulder satin gown with pearl beading and a cathedral train. She carried a hand tied bouquet of red roses.

Matron of honor was Shelli Strickland, sister-in-law of the groom, of Jacksonville, FL. Maid of honor was Krystal Pylant, cousin of the bride, of Huntsville. Attendants were Beth Hughey of Gallion, Rikki Stubblefield, cousin of the bride, of Elora, TN, and Miranda Manderson cousin of the bride, of Fayetteville, TN. They wore black tea length strapless dresses while carrying bouquets of red roses. Maggie Strickland, Daughter of the groom, was the flower girl.

Brother of the groom, David Strickland of Jacksonville, FL, served as best man. Groomsmen were Tom Whitaker of Birmingham, Eli Street of Tuscaloosa, Clint Miller of Tuscaloosa and Amzi McKee of Faunsdale.

The reception was held in the Stewart's Chapel Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

Following a honeymoon in the Gatlinburg, TN, the couple makes their home in Birmingham.
