Flat Stanley visits SCES students

GILBERTTOWN — Mrs. Patti Christopher's first grade students at Southern Choctaw Elementary School recently read the book "Flat Stanley", by Jeff Brown. Each student then colored and cut out their own Flat Stanley.

They were each asked to choose a relative or friend to send Flat Stanley to for a one-week visit. After the visit, Flat Stanley would return to SCES with pictures and stories of his adventures.

Dawson Taylor sent his Flat Stanley to his Aunt Sherry Breland-Harrison in Columbia, South Carolina. On Monday of that week, Stanley went to school with Aunt Sherry, who teaches 8th grade earth science at Irmo Jr. High School. Her class was conducting a fun 3D project, so Stanley participated, and Aunt Sherry sent Dawson his own pair of 3D glasses.

On Tuesday, Stanley went to dance class with cousin Taylor and watched her "jazz it up."

On Wednesday, he visited a classroom that had a live iguana for a pet. He was quite nervous.

On Thursday, Stanley played with Chaz, Aunt Sherry's poodle.

On Friday, Flat Stanley ate at Pizza Hut.

On Sunday, Stanley attended church and had a lot of fun. The next day, he went with cousin Taylor to watch the orthodontist put braces on Taylor's teeth.

Overall, it was an exciting week for Flat

Stanley but he is glad to be back home with Dawson and Mrs. Christopher at SCES!
